All courses must be paid in full before the starting date. UAB reserves the right to cancel courses due to insufficient numbers with a minimum notice time of 7 days. In that case, the course fees will be totally refunded.

UAB reserves the right to terminate any applicant's participation if he/she does not adhere to the rules and regulations, norms and instructions of the university.

No refunds (or prolongations) will be given for late arrivals or absence during the course, or for teaching days lost due to local and national holidays when the school is closed.

Insurance

UAB Barcelona won't be held responsible for loss or damage to personal property or belongings.

All students are advised to arrange adequate personal insurance for Spain.

Visas for Spain

It is the duty of each student to ascertain the correct entry requirements for entering Spain at their nearest Embassy or Consulate. Citizens of the EEC do not normally require visas but UAB cannot accept responsibility if students are denied entry into the country.

Upon request and after receiving a deposit of 500 € UAB will provide an enrolment letter only for the specific dates of the course. Any express mailing required for urgent documents will incur extra charges.

Non-teaching days in Barcelona

Certain days in Barcelona are designated “non-teaching days” due to local or national public holidays. Any classes falling on such days when the university is closed will mean that the lost teaching hours will NOT be made up on other days.
